

SOLO WILDERNESS FIRST AID

Training

March 25 – 26, 2017

Hello Interested Participant:

At this time, the Appalachian Mountain Club is making the final arrangements for the SOLO Traing Course. The course will be held at Noble View Outdoor Center, Russell, MA. Availability of training is on a first-come, first-serve basis and is limited to the number of available instructors. If you are interested in attending the course, it is important that the fee is mailed as soon as possible in order to reserve your space in the program — space is limited. The cost covers class fees, materials, and refreshments. As soon as payment for the program is received, a list of required personal gear will be forwarded to you along with an admission slip.

This class is a mandatory 16 hours over Saturday and Sunday. Both days must be attended if certification is to be issued.

Class times: 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM both Saturday and Sunday.

A patient assessment bandana will be issued to all participants upon successful completion of the training.

Cost is $180.00 (non-members) & $165.00 (members) and payable to: AMC Noble View

Lodging is available at $15.00 per night (members) & $20.00 per night non-members.

SOLO WFA Training

NAME: _____ PHONE _____

ADDRESS: _____

E-MAIL: _____

This registration is for WFR Recertification _____

___ LODGING IS REQUIRED (please check) ___ Sat only ___ Friday & Sat.

I am enclosing my check, made out to AMC Noble View, for $ _____.

Please mail the above Registration Form and payment to:

Frank Evans
P.O. Box # 143
Northampton, MA 01061-0143

PHONE: 413-210-8119
e-mail: chairpersonnobleview@gmail.com